

Did you know FREE mental health services & substance use treatment is available for St. Charles County children?

Since 2004, CCRB has managed the St. Charles County Children's Community Services Fund, which is funded by a 1/8 cent sales tax. Shopping local means supporting St. Charles County kids!

Funds are used to ensure mental health and substance use treatment services are available for all St. Charles County youth, up to 19 years of age. Children (and their families) are eligible to receive services regardless of family income or insurance status. More info at www.stcharlescountykids.org

To get started, call the 24/7 St. Charles County Youth Connection Helpline at 314-819-8802 or learn more at www.stcharlescountykids.org/get-help-now/

You will speak to a mental health professional who will respond attentively and compassionately to your needs.
The information you provide is confidential.

Services funded through the Children's Community Services Fund include:

- Autism and developmental delays
- Crisis support
- Foster care & adoptive family support
- Homeless prevention & support
- Individual, family & group counseling
- In-school counseling
- Outpatient psychiatric services
- Parenting education & support
- Psychological testing
- Respite & emergency care services
- Runaway/homeless outreach
- Substance use treatment services & recovery support
- Suicide and child abuse support services

The CCRB does not provide direct services to clients.
All funded services are provided by non-profit partners and agencies.

The CCRB has no affiliation with the Missouri Department of Social Services or Children's Division.

This program and its parent organization are not sponsored by, affiliated with, nor endorsed by the Francis Howell, Fort Zumwalt, Orchard Farm, City of St. Charles, or Wentzville School District or its individual schools.