Dear St. Charles County Residents:

2019 was a year of challenges and successes. Our school district partners continue to be challenged to expand suicide assessments and child abuse prevention without additional funding. Agency partners have been working diligently to help them develop curriculum and to be a resource for youth in need of help. The opioid-heroin epidemic continues to ravage families, and their children are impacted by the loss of their parents to drug-related imprisonment and overdose-related deaths. As our county’s youth population grows, and our kids and teens deal with an increasingly stressful world, these needs continue to increase.

In the face of these challenges, our partner agencies continue to shine; providing caring and effective treatment to our most vulnerable citizens. We are proud to announce CCRB-funded programs achieved 92% of their Clinical Outcomes goals and 95% of funded line items achieved 100% compliance in billing, residency, and age requirements.

Additionally, the CCRB provided trauma-informed training to 120 early childhood educators and staff. Our Shower of Love baby care drive surpassed $1 million in total donations of diaper, formula, and baby care-related items; providing a steady supply of items for ten local non-profit partners.

2020 brings an updated needs assessment and impact report to assist the Board with strategic planning, so as to best use and invest in the highest priority areas with limited extra funding and an ever-growing youth population. The Board is committed, as always, to wise stewardship of County tax dollars in serving the most needs of your children.
